WHERE THEY PLAY TODAY: Grinnell at Nebraska. Washington at Manhattan. Ames at Oklahoma.

Special to The Missourian. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 14.—Missouri disposed of Nebraska here last evening almost as easily as she has routed the two previous opponents. The final score was 46 to 31. Missouri made her best showing in the second half when she totalled 26 points against the Lincoln five's 15. The first half ended with the score 20 to 16 in favor of the Old Gold and Black.

Browning was the most prominent figure on the scoring end of the game, counting seven goals from the field. Smith, Coach Frank's flashy forward, registered six times from the field. Bond Bunker and Knight were not far behind for Missouri. Hays played well on the defense.

The contest was remarkably free from fouls. Bond for Missouri scored six times from the free throw mark in seven attempts. Smith for Nebraska failed in seven of eight attempts.

The game was featured by the long sensational shots which were netted by Smith and Warren for the Huskers. The Tigers played their usual short pass game and in addition to scoring almost at will, missed many short shots that would have boosted their total.

HERE AND THERE IN COLLEGE SPORT

Minnesota University having deposed the veteran Williams as head football coach and director of athletics, is said to be dickering for Beszek of Pittsburgh or Luehring of Nebraska. Williams' removal came after a period of some eighteen years' service. He failed to see the handwriting on the wall some time ago when a few managers began to dissect his system. This fall he was universally criticised for trying to defeat the numbering of his football players. He numbered them so that the numbers could not be read and as a consequence the athletic board at Minnesota sent a letter of apology to all other institutions in the Western Conference.

Fred Luehring has always been an active participant in Missouri Valley Athletics. The University of Nebraska would have difficulty in securing another man so well fitted for his task.

Kansas is excited over their basketball team for this season. A more successful year is anticipated than last. Indeed there is a tendency toward overconfidence in Allen's camp. Endicott and Rody are already being boomed for All-Valley. Rody has averaged over 6 field goals so far.

One Jayhawk sport scribe in recalling the fact that Kansas lost four games to Missouri last year has ventured to say the Kansas five will do better this year. Inasmuch as the two teams play but two games this year, K. U. is sure to do better even if she does not win a game from Mizou.

One cannot help but respect this Drake aggregation that polled 49 points against Oklahoma, an outfit that other Valley teams have found trouble in defeating. Payseur was the star of the team which invaded Oklahoma. From reports out of Norman, the Drake team was roundly applauded for their splendid work even though the home team was defeated.

It is not surprising that Kansas barely squeaked out a victory over the Des Moines five. It is a tribute to the Missouri five that they won quite handsily from the Drake quintet on its own court.

SWEDISH MAGAZINE HAS ARTICLE BY BOB SIMPSON

Tiger Track Coach A Member of American Team at Meet in Stockholm in 1916.

An article on hurdling and its intricacies written by Robert L. ("Bob") Simpson, track coach of the University, appears in the December, 1921, issue of the Idrotts Varlden, one of the leading monthly publications on sports issued in Stockholm, Sweden, a copy of which was received yesterday at the office of Z. C. Clevenger, athletic director.

Coach Simpson was a member of the athletic team that represented America at Stockholm, Sweden, in 1916, and it was at Stockholm that "Bob" set the world's record of 14.45 seconds in the 110-meter high hurdles. Pictures of the finals in the 110-meter high hurdle race at Pershing Stadium in Paris, France, during the spring of 1919, which "Bob" won, carrying the allied championship in that event with it, are shown. Simpson defeated Kendall and Wilson, representing New Zealand, and Ames and Kelley, Americans, in this race.

Pictures of the last race in which "Bob" ran in open competition are also printed, the finals in a meet in Philadelphia, Pa., in September, 1919, of the 120-yard high hurdles, in which he defeated Earl J. Thompson of Dartmouth. Fred W. Kelley of the New York Athletic Club, and Harold Barron of the Meadowbrook Athletic Club, three of the world's top-notchers in the hurdles. Pictures of other hurdle races are also shown, but one has to be able to read the Swedish language to decipher the article, or any of the other stories in the magazine.

"Bob" is co-holder of the 110-meter high hurdles world's record of 14.45 seconds with Earl J. Thompson. He also holds the world's record of 20.35 seconds with Wendell and A. C. Kraenzlein in the 220-yard low hurdles. "Bob" set this record in the Missouri Valley Conference track and field meet, held on Rollins Field in June, 1916. Simpson holds the following indoor world's hurdle records:

50-yard high hurdles, 4 hurdles.	Time 1-5 seconds.
50-yard low hurdles, 4 hurdles.	Time 1-5 seconds.
60-yard low hurdles, 5 hurdles.	Time 1-5 seconds.
70-yard low hurdles, 5 hurdles.	Time 1-5 seconds.

A Dare! A Challenge A Defiance!

Went through yesterday O. K. Was in Acajesse Hall a few minutes before nine and stayed until 9:08. Chatted with a whole gang of you and wasn't even suspicious. Some of the persons I was talking to were George Bond, Ruth Hayman, Numa Heightman, Ted Packwood, Ruth Bertrand, and Ferol Stark. I'm sorry, folks! Better luck next time!

Between 4 and 5, I dropped into Sykes and Broadhead's. I wanted to see Johnnie Quarles but he was upstairs with a customer. Zachery Walters was in there but was too busy talking to a friend to notice me. Hard luck, Zack!

Went into the Recreation a little after eight last night. Saw Irving Lauderdale and spoke to him. Sam Smoke had a fierce time identifying me when I went up to get a receipt for my call-shot. (Be a good sport, Sam, and don't give me away—I'm trusting you—it didn't cost you anything, anyway.)

Went to the Columbia Theater last night; talked to Alben Koritnik, Elizabeth Upton, Victor Lyons, Hugh Gallagher of Kansas City—staying at the A. T. O. house aren't you, Hugh?—Phil Cotton, Kenneth Hagerman, Kenneth Meredith—and a few others.

Naturally I'm Getting Confidence! Tonight I will be at the Tavern Assembly between 9 and 9:43

I will more than likely dance with several who are reading this. If you recognize me, Messrs. Heath and Lightner of the Tavern Drug Store will present you with a box of chocolates, if you use hair pins—otherwise a free couple ticket to next week's Assembly from Mr. Leonard.

I wish you luck!

Tomorrow, Sunday, I will eat dinner between 6:45 and 7:45 as the guest of the Palms. Recognize me in the Palms and the Management will present you with 2 Chicken Dinners on the following Sunday.

Monday, between 3:15 and 4:15, I will get barbering done in the Tiger Barber Shop. Recognize me and the management will present you with four free "complete rounds." A round at the Tiger Barber Shop is a haircut, shampoo and massage.

Monday night, between 7:30 and 8:30, I will play pool in the Rex Billiard Parlor. Recognize me and you will be presented with a check for $1.00 of free pool.

I challenge you to collect on any of them!

Furthermore, within three minutes of 9:15 tonight I will pass Sykes and Broadhead's corner. Recognize me and you will be presented with a free Reserved Seat to the Third Annual Journalism Production DeLuxe "The Ninth Deacon."

Edgar Glasscock, I stood at your elbow today while you were talking about me. Won't say where—it was in the afternoon—Sorry! Yours mockingly,
